W. Blair.

St. James's, November 17.

The three following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderneſſe, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and of the Miniſters of the Goſpel in the Shire of Ayr.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, thoroughly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government; Bleſſings which our Predeceſſors in this Country, before the glorious Revolution, often expoſed their Lives and Fortunes to obtain, beg Leave, with all Humility, to offer our Congratulations on the late Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, both by Land and by Sea; which has had the happy Effect to free our Fellow Subjects in your Majeſty's Electoral Dominions, and in America, from thoſe Devaſtations and Ravages which a mercileſs Enemy had projected.

ed. And if French Meaſures are to be judged of by common Rules, we ſhould alſo ſuppoſe, that the Blow, given to their Fleet by your Majeſty's Ships, under the brave Admiral Boſcawen, will make them lay aſide their boaſted Scheme of invading Britain.

At the ſame Time permit us, Great Sir, with the moſt profound Deference and Submiſſion, to repreſent, That this Scheme of an Invaſion, however deſperate, and therefore never attempted by Louis the Fourteenth, or his Miniſters, except when the Change of Government in Britain was recent, and the People unhappily divided; which, thank God, is no more the Caſe, may notwithſtanding be attempted at this Time, the French being baffled in all their other Deſigns. And as it is alſo poſſible, that ſome few of their Ships may eſcape the Vigilance of your Majeſty's Navy; and impoſſible for your Majeſty, however anxious for the Safety of your People, to have your Ships and Troops ſtationed round every Part of yonr extenſive Coaſt; we, in ſuch Situation, apprehend it to be incumbent on all your Majeſty's Subjects, from their Allegiance and for Self-preſervation, not to remain in a State of Inaction, but to be ready to join in repelling the Invaders: Such in particular we can, on good Grounds, affirm, is the Voice of the Inhabitants of this populous Country, who wait, with Impatience, an Order to put themſelves in Readineſs.

Notwithſtanding of this our Zeal, we find, that the Want and Diſuſe of Arms renders us at preſent in a Manner incapable to be of any real Uſe to ourſelves, or to the Publick, ſhould the French make a Deſcent on theſe Iſlands. And for theſe Reaſons moſt humbly pray, That your Majeſty will be pleaſed to give ſuch Orders for putting this Country in ſome Poſture of Defence, as your Majeſty, in your great Wiſdom, ſhall think proper.

That your Majeſty may be long preſerved for the Good of your People, and the Support of the Proteſtant Religion, and of the Liberties of Europe: And that all your Deſcendants may inherit thoſe Princely Virtues, with which you are diſtinguiſhed, is the conſtant Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Ayr in Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Liberty, with the moſt profound Humility, to congratulate your Majeſty on the glorious Succeſs of your Arms by Sea and Land, whereby the pernicious Deſigns of our Enemies have been hitherto baffled, our Commerce protected, and the peaceable Poſſeſſion of the Fruits of our Induſtry ſecured to us.

Being ſenſible of theſe ineſtimable Bleſſings, enjoyed by us under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, we are ready to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your ſacred Perſon, and of our Country, now threatned with an Invaſion from a perfidious Enemy, rendered deſperate by repeated Loſſes and Diſappointments.

As your Majeſty's Troops are at preſent neceſſarily employed at a Diſtance from us, we and our fellow Burgeſſes are very deſirous of being put in a Condition of making all the Defence in our Power, and of co-operating with the regular Forces againſt the Enemy, ſhould they attempt to land on our Coaſt, or to deſtroy the Shipping in our Harbour. But the Want of Arms and Ammunition renders us unable to accompliſh theſe good Purpoſes.

Allow us further, with the greateſt Submiſſion, to lay before your Majeſty the defenceleſs State of the whole Firth of Clyde, in the Trade whereof many Thouſands of your faithful Subjects are intereſted. And to pray in the moſt humble Manner, that your Majeſty will be pleaſed to give ſuch Orders for Defence of the ſaid Firth, againſt our Enemies, as the Exigence of the Times will admit. And alſo, for putting the Inhabitants of this Burgh in ſuch Poſture of Defence, as your Majeſty, in your great Wiſdom, ſhall think proper.

That your Majeſty may have continued Succeſs againſt your Enemies; and long Reign over a free and happy People; and that there may never be wanting of your Royal Line, inheriting your Princely Virtues, to ſit upon the Throne of theſe Realms, is, and ſhall be the conſtant Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of your Burgh of Ayr.

Signed by our Preſes, in our Preſence, and by our Appointment,

William Ferguſſon, Provoſt.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Mers and Tiviotdale, in Synod aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE Provincial Synod of Mers and Tiviotdale beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the ſignal Succeſs with which the Almighty hath bleſſed your Majeſty's Arms, and to expreſs the Senſe they have of the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Government, their zealous Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and Royal Houſe, and their Deteſtation and Abhorrence of all the wicked Deſigns and Enterprizes of your Majeſty's Enemies.

The Juſtice of your Majeſty's Cauſe, and that Wiſdom, Unanimity and Steadineſs with which your Majeſty's publick Meaſures have been conducted, have had that viſible Countenance from Heaven, by which your Majeſty hath been diſtinguiſhed as the Object of Divine Favour, and your faithful Subjects enſured of Felicity under your auſpicious Reign; whilſt the unjuſt and ambitious Attempts of your Majeſty's perfidious Enemies have been ſignally marked, by the Divine Providence, with Confuſion and Diſappointment.

The Provincial Synod, with Hearts full of Joy, and warm with Love and Gratitude, call to Mind the glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in Germany, the Expelling of your Enemies from your Electoral Dominions moſt unjuſtly aſſaulted, in Revenge of your Majeſty's firm and invariable Attachment to the eſſential and undoubted Intereſts of your Britiſh Subjects: With Pleaſure they call to Mind the Heroick Efforts of your faithful and illuſtrious Ally the King of Pruſſia, the Terror of lawleſs Ambition, and, with your Sacred Majeſty, the Guardian of Publick Liberty and of the Proteſtant Cauſe: With Hearts thankful to God and to your Majeſty, they now behold your Enemies effectually humbled in North America, where, in Violation of the moſt ſolemn Treaties, they attacked the Britiſh Colonies, and with ſavage Cruelty aſſaulted and diſtreſſed your Majeſty's peaceable and uſeful Subjects.

With theſe glorious and happy Events is connected all that is dear to every True Briton, the Security of our Religion, the Preſervation of our free and happy Government, the Proſperity and Extenſion of our Commerce: Bleſſings by which your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign is happily diſtinguiſhed, and which are ſecured to us by the Eſtabliſhment of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Auguſt Family.

The French King, foiled in every iniquitous and perfidious Attempt, now inſolently threatens a Deſcent on your Majeſty's Britiſh Dominions. On a Proſpect ſo alarming, however improbable the Succeſs, this Provincial Synod do moſt humbly and devoutly offer up their Prayers to Almighty God, that he may diſappoint and defeat ſo audacious an Enterprize. And while they glory in their unqueſtioned Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Illuſtrious Family, they have the Pleaſure of giving the fulleſt Aſſurance to your Majeſty, of the firm and determined Loyalty of the People under their Care: And they humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of their own and of their People's ſteady Reſolution to ſupport your Majeſty's Government, at the Hazard of their Lives, and of all that is dear to them in this World.

And they humbly beg Leave, moſt gracious Sovereign, to add their moſt earneſt Prayers, that the Divine Providence may guard and protect your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon from all Dangers; and that, notwithſtanding the reſtleſs and implacable Malice of your Enemies, your Majeſty's Reign may be long and glorious, over a free and happy People; that the Imperial Diadem of theſe Realms may ſit eaſy on your Royal Head; and that the Sceptre, as a Bleſſing to Poſterity, may continue to lateſt Generations in your Illuſtrious Houſe.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by Kelſo, Oct. 24, 1759. William Paton, Moderator.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Glouceſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by George Selwyn, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council, of the City of Glouceſter, in Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

AMidſt the loud Acclamations of univerſal Joy, be pleaſed to accept, Moſt gracious Sovereign, of the humbleſt and ſincereſt Congratulations of your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the ancient City of Glouceſter, in Council aſſembled, upon the new and repeated Succeſſes of your Majeſty's Arms in every Quarter of the World.

It is our peculiar Happineſs to live in a Period that will be ever diſtinguiſhed in the Britiſh Annals, by the Glory of your Majeſty's Conqueſts, the Wiſdom and Unanimity of your Councils, and by the Loyalty and Affection of all your Majeſty's Subjects. Under your Auſpices the Britiſh Arms receive freſh Luſtre! Nor will any of thoſe Victories, renowned in Hiſtory, obtained by our Anceſtors over the ſame avowed and ever aſpiring Enemy, reflect greater Honour to the Britiſh Name, than the Reduction of Guadaloupe, the Battle of Minden, and the Defeat under the Walls of Quebec, with the conſequent Acquiſition of the Metropolis of our Enemies in that Part of the World, and a whole Series of other important Succeſſes and favourable Events, with which it has pleaſed God to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms by Sea and Land, in ſo ſmall a Compaſs of Time.

In the Review of many of theſe great Atchievements, we behold with joyful Surprize every Obſtacle of Art, of Nature, of Situation, of Climate, and of ſuperior Numbers, overcome by the Intrepidity of your Majeſty's Troops and Naval Forces, and the Abilities and Perſeverance of thoſe who commanded them: Nor doth the Victories and Acquiſitions of your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies redound more to the Honour, than to the real Intereſt and Benefit of our Country, the Welfare and Protection of our Trade, the Extenſion of the Proteſtant Religion, and the Deliverance of ſo many of your Majeſty's Subjects from the Incroachments of their Enemies, and all the Horror of ſavage Cruelty.

Other Monarchs often unſheath the Sword from Views of Ambition, or for their own Glory; but it is your's, to protect your Subjects, their Rights and Privileges: 'Tis hence, that amidſt the Calamities of War, deſtructive to other Nations, ſo many real Bleſſings are derived to us, and which call forth our higheſt Gratitude to that Divine Providence, which has hitherto protected your Majeſty's Perſon, and preſerved your Life to the Happineſs and Glory of theſe Nations; and may the ſame good Providence crown your Majeſty's unparalleled Succeſſes with an honourable and laſting Peace: For while we rejoice as Britons, we weep like Men for the Devaſtations of War: We mourn a great Man fall'n e're his Noon of Life, who had ſo early run the Race of Glory; who, like the Great Guſtavus, died at the Head of his Troops, and Victory lay bleeding by his Side. But whilſt, with the univerſal Voice, we lament his Loſs, we have freſh Cauſe for the Exultation in the Steadineſs and Intrepidity or your Majeſty's Troops and ſurviving Generals, that ſuffered not the Fall of ſo beloved Leader to reſtrain their native Ardour, nor the Lawrels to be ſnatched from their victorious Hands. Such Examples, under your Majeſty's gracious Influence, your known Experience in War, and Readineſs to diſtinguiſh and reward military Virtues, cannot fail to animate your faithful Britons, and give a Succeſſion of Heroes to Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the City of Glouceſter, this ninth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, 1759.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commonalty, of the City of York, having been tranſmitted by George Fox Lane, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of York, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſt's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty, on the Succeſs of your Arms in different Parts of the World.

The Reduction of Quebec, amongſt the many Advantages, obtained by Sea and Land in the Courſe of one Year, is an Event of the greateſt Importance, and furniſhes a noble Example of the happy Effects of of Bravery, ſupported by Unanimity; for we cannot help obſerving with Pleaſure on this great Occaſion, that it ſeems materially owing to the Harmony which ſubſiſted amongſt the ſeveral Commanders, inſpiring the Troops with Alacrity and invincible Reſolution, that we have been ſaluted with Victory over unimagined Difficulties, and Numbers much ſuperior.

The Fields of Creſſy and Agincourt, memorable for ſignal Inſtances of Britiſh Courage, are equalled at leaſt by the Plains of Minden, and the Walls of Quebec. But to moderate our Rejoicings for the repeated Succeſſes with which your Majeſty's Arms, under Heaven, hath been bleſſed, we feel a ſenſible Concern for the Loſs of the illuſtrious Leader, who ſo gallantly fell in compleating a Conqueſt, long wiſhed for, and always before attempted in vain.

Confident as we are, from the known Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, that, notwithſtanding the vaſt warlike Preparations, and menaced Invaſion from the Coaſt of France, that the Glories of a well directed, and proſperous War, will at length be crowned with an honourable and a laſting Peace; we pray your Majeſty may long live, to ſmile upon the Felicities of a grateful People, happily ſecured in their Trade and Commerce; in their Liberties, their Properties, their Religion, and in every Thing elſe that is valuable and dear to them.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of King's Lynn in Norfolk, has been preſented to His Majeſty by J. Turner, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of King's Lynn in Norfolk, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmeſt Congratulations on the great and wonderful Succeſs with which the Divine Providence has bleſſed your Majeſty's Arms, in the Proſecution of this juſt and neceſſary War.

Such a continued Series of Victories as has attended the Britiſh Arms in every Quarter of the Globe, but above all in America, is a glorious Evidence of the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, of the Abilities of thoſe intruſted with the Command of your Majeſty's Forces; and we may humbly preſume they carry with them the Sanction of the great Diſpoſer of all Events, to the Juſtice of your Majeſty's Cauſe.

Permit us, at the ſame Time, Moſt gracious Sovereign, that we ſincerely lament the Loſs of a General, to whom we owe ſo large a Share of our Succeſſes, and whoſe early Virtues and Military Abilities promiſed ſo many future Triumphs to theſe Realms, to expreſs our Joy for the Succeſs of that Gallant Officer, who had the Honour of finiſhing the arduous Enterprize ſo intrepidly begun; who, actuated by Duty to your Royal Perſon, and by Zeal for the Welfare of his Country, preferred ſo dangerous a Service in a diſtant and barbarous Country, to the Enjoyment of an ample Fortune and domeſtic Happineſs at home.

Theſe Acquiſitions, ſo important to the Trade and Commerce of Great Britain, and to the Safety of your Colonies abroad, will ever diſtinguiſh this memorable Year; as your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign will be diſtinguiſhed in the Annals of this Nation, by the Happineſs and Proſperity of your People.

May the Divine Power enable your Majeſty to crown all theſe Glories with an equitable and laſting Peace, and may Gratitude ever bind the Affections of a Free People to your Sacred Perſon, and to your Illuſtrious Houſe.

Given under our Common Seal, with one Aſſent and Conſent, the 10th Day of November, 1759.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council, of the City of Cheſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Richard Groſvenor, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Cheſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of your ancient and ever loyal City of Cheſter, do heartily embrace this Opportunity, humbly to approach your Royal Perſon, with our warmeſt Congratulations, upon the late many and great Succeſſes, with which it hath pleaſed Heaven, regardful of the Juſtice of your Cauſe, to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms.

Among theſe ſignal Victories, we beg Leave more particularly to expreſs our gratulatory Zeal on account of that glorious Atchievement, which has ſubjected to the Britiſh Empire, the moſt important and hitherto unconquered Capital of the French Territories in North America.

Permit us likewiſe, gratefully to acknowledge your Majeſty's Prudence, viſible in your ample Preparations againſt the threatened Attacks upon your Dominions at home; and more eſpecially in your timely calling into Service thoſe Conſtitutional Troops, who will be ever ready to lay down their Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Sacred Perſon and Illuſtrious Family.

We have alſo a true Senſe of your Majeſty's great Wiſdom, and paternal Care of your People, ſo manifeſtly ſhewn in the Choice of thoſe, whom you have been pleaſed to admit into your Councils; and entruſt with the Conduct of your Fleets and Armies.

May the Almighty ſtill ſhower down his Bleſſings on your Royal Perſon; may He continue to go out with your Hoſts, and to crown their Arms with Victory, ſo that, in His appointed Time, the equitable Conceſſions of humbled Foes, may render this Nation as highly honoured in Peace, as it is terrible now in War.

Given under our Common Seal the 10th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, 1759.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir John Mathar, being being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE many glorious and important Succeſſes obtained by your Majeſty's Arms by Sea and Land, in all the Quarters of the World, this Year, call upon us, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and obedient Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of your Town of Kingſton upon Hull, to preſent our moſt hearty Congratulations to your Majeſty thereon.

The Succeſſes of the laſt Year were ſo many and great, that the moſt ſanguine of your Majeſty's Subjects, could ſcarce hope to have them ſurpaſſed in this, but, to enumerate the glorious Victory obtained by your Majeſty's Troops near Minden in Germany, under the Command of Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick; the Defeat of the French Fleet by that of your Majeſty, under the Command of Admiral Boſcawen on the Coaſt of Portugal; the Victories obtained by your Majeſty's Fleet and Forces in the Eaſt Indies; the Taking of the Iſland of Goree on the Coaſt of Africa; and the Iſlands of Guadaloupe and Marigalante in the Weſt Indies; the ſtrong Forts of Duqueſne, Frontenac, Niagara, Ticonderoga, and Crown Point in North America; and to crown all, the Victories obtained by your Majeſty's Army, under the Command of the Brave and ever to be Celebrated General Wolfe, over the French Forces near Quebec, and Reduction of that important City, will make this Year ever Memorable and Glorious to your Majeſty, as well on account of the Vigorous and Wiſe Meaſures taken by your Majeſty, for carrying on the juſt and neceſſary War, in which we are engaged, as of the Valour and Reſolution of your Land and Sea Forces in the Execution of them.

That all your Majeſty's Endeavours for the Honour and Safety of your Kingdoms and Subjects, may ever be attended with the like Succeſs, until our inveterate Enemies will ſubmit to ſuch Terms as ſhall be productive of a Glorious and Laſting Peace, and that your Majeſty may live to ſee the ſame eſtabliſhed, and may long enjoy the Fruits of it, bleſſed with Health and the Love and Obedience of a happy People, is the ſincere and hearty Prayer of us your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, the 6th Day of November, in the Thirty-third Year of your Majeſty's Reign.
